

3rd TUDiSC conference, March 16

Disruptive Worldmaking: Technology, Design, Art

Venue: SLUB Open Science Lab, Zellescher Weg 25, 01217 Dresden – Forum

Program

| | | |
|-------------|---|---|
| 10.30-11.00 | Registration and coffee | |
| 11.00-11.15 | Welcome | Prof. Dr. Christian Prunitsch |
| 11.15-11.30 | Introduction Disruptive Worldmaking: Technology, Design, Art | Prof. Dr. Orit Halpern Prof. Dr. Erich Hörl (Leuphana Universität) Prof. Dr. Lars Koch |
| 11.30-12.30 | Keynote 1 Research-Creation: Nonpropositional knowledge and the Production of Publics | Prof. Dr. Chris Salter (Concordia University) |
| 12.30-14.00 | Lunch | Snacks provided (or Mensa) |
| 14.00-15.00 | Keynote 2 Critical media | Dr. Johannes Bruder (Fachhochschule Nordwestschweiz) |
| 15.00-15.45 | Keynote 3 Designing Mobilities | Prof. Dr. Jens Krzywinski, Lenard Opeskin |
| 15.45-16.30 | Coffee | |
| 16.30-18.00 | Book-Presentation The Smartness Mandate | Prof. Dr. Orit Halpern Prof. Dr. Robert Mitchell (Duke University) |

The conference will also be streamed live.

Registration

As a TUDiSC member you already should have received an Outlook invitation. Please confirm or cancel your attendance via Outlook. Thank you very much!

All other interested guests are asked to register for the conference or livestream by 8.3.23 at the following email address: declan_john.galbraith@tu-dresden.de